Karen,

Thank you so much for your call. I was privileged to have been asked to give the invocation Friday evening at the Republican State Convention dinner at which Vice-President Cheney spoke. I thought you might like to have a copy of the prayer (attached). Actually, I would greatly appreciate it if you were to forward the prayer to Governor Palin herself. She should know she's getting prayers from as far away as Oklahoma! (Governor Palin is my choice for vice-president!) Best, Tony

Dear God, the Author of life, Creator of us all,

We thank You for the privilege of living in a country where we are free to acknowledge our dependence on You.

We ask You to bestow Your grace upon our nation, our Party, and all gathered here tonight.

Bless our elected leaders, especially our honored guest, Vice-President Dick Cheney, his wife Lynne, and their family. Thank you for Vice-President Cheney's selfless devotion to the service of our nation.

Bless our President, George Bush, his wife Laura, and their family.

Thank You for raising up these brave and honorable men at a time when our nation was in such need of their leadership, and for giving them the judgment and the strength to keep our country safe.

Thank You for Oklahoma's great congressional delegation, exemplified by the dean of the delegation, Senator Jim Inhofe, whose common sense and uncommon courage are renowned.

Thank You for our outstanding Republican state legislators, epitomized by the senior member, Senator Jim Williamson, whose character, wisdom, and leadership are an inspiration far beyond our state Capitol.

Bless all our nation's Republican leaders, especially Alaska Governor Sarah Palin, who last Friday gave birth to a son with Down Syndrome. Afterward, she said – quote – “We knew through early testing he would face special challenges, and we feel privileged that God would entrust us with this gift and allow us unspeakable joy as he entered our lives. We have faith that every baby is created for good purpose and has potential to make this world a better place. We are truly blessed.” – unquote

Fortify all your public servants, Lord, so that they who are in the arena may always know that, in defending the sanctity of innocent human life, they do what is honorable, principled, humane, noble, and right.

And finally, guide our Party to follow You, and to proclaim those values which reflect Your own, so that we, as Your instruments, might help to shape a world in which Thy will may be done, on earth, as it is in heaven.

Amen.
