MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin,

Wishing you and your family the best in welcoming your new baby. The solid example you set all Alaskans of nurturing parenting and your honest compassion for children has made a lasting impression on me. I was so proud of you the day you dropped in to substitute teach in the same classroom I had subbed in when you had the flight delay in Ketchikan. I was cheering for you the entire time you stuck by your kids in keeping them in their home school district, and for your tender support of your son when he joined the military.

You are by far the best Alaskan Governor in my time as an Alaskan; In no small part because you give us the best example of dedication to children and the future.

Congratulations!

Jennifer Taylor
