Agree on One Point, Coot

He does not dodge questions; he just spins, and I know the issues well enough to know that he only gives half the truth....the half that makes him look good. I will give him A+ on his ability to talk around issues.

I did listen to the first hour, but the calls were very softball and the show was boring. He even brought the very arrogant side-kick of his in case things got heated. I have heard Julie on the 4th Avenue Theater and AWWU and other issues....defend him but does not ever have the facts in hand to get into the details of an issue. If both of them know they are losing, like with the 4th Avenue, they refuse to go on the radio and talk about it....like the "how dare you bring that up" attitude.

Everything questionable will come out if Begich seeks higher office, and I think people will see thru the spin.

There will also be a higher voter turnout because it is a Presidential and Congressional election, and not just the 25% people turning out for the Municipal Elections.

If a Dem does win against Don Young, it will be Ethan. Ted will win with no problem.

very arrogant side-kick

Concerned1voter,

And you know me how? I have found when people have absolutely nothing to say and no facts to back them up, they start calling names.

Julie

Julie...

This is always the way you spin it. I did not call you names.....I described you as arrogant.....nothing personal.

And you know me how???.....c'mon Julie you are on the radio all the time(city time). I do not know you personally.

Here are your facts.....4th Avenue Theater would cost the taxpayers nothing.....total lie.....then when the truth was known, you refused to talk about it on the radio....arrogance.

Another fact.....AWWU....when asked how much the attorney's fee would cost the taxpayers to sue ourselves....you acted annoyed and said you did not have that figure and would get back on it.....Did you ever find that figure, Julie?

Do you need more facts.....I have many more facts about why I called you arrogant, and I DO have something to say.

Oh Julie:

Go figure an employee of the Mayor blogging on his behalf. (On city time no less)
JH, don't take it personal, it's just politics.

You and the Boy Wonder are on talk radio more then Howard Stern.

Every time you are on Fagan, Burke, 700AM, 1080AM, or KWHL you seem annoyed and often respond arrogantly to criticism or opinions you don't agree with.

Here is an idea, don't go on the radio! We all know where to find you and the Mayor if we need to get your two cents worth on an issue; or as your boy Ivan Moore would say: tuppence worth.

Future prediction:

I could see Begich taking over for Pat Sajak and hosting Wheel of Fortune (or at least the Alaskan version) and Julie Hasket could turn the letters.

-According to Esquire, the Boy Wonder shouldn't waste his fashion sense in politics. Hosting a game show would be right up his alley.

Ms. Hasquet

I thought you were hilarious when you blurted out that Randy Ruedrich was on the phone. You two got the best of him! Left us laughing. Have a good holiday weekend.
