MESSAGE:

Hi Sarah,

My sister, Ava Eads, off the tender "Erin Lynn", said she off loaded fish from you last spring and mention that you were a hard working fisher gal, just like her. I don't want anything, just to say hi and to let you know that Ava left the fishing grounds about the first of August to rush back here to take care of me. I developed a Primary Brain Tumor(glioblastoma multiforme), they removed a growth about the size of a raquet ball (whatever that is, must be a doctor game) they give me about a year to live. I'm fine, feel great, I believe in being born, living then you fade away, just like it should be. I'm not worried, scared or wanting of anything. I'm calm and serene and happy. I was just letting you know what happen to Ava if you missed delivering to her or wondered where she went.

We're doing just fine, the town had a benefit and auction for me and we'll make it through the winter because of their generosity. (Don't you just love this State?)

Keep up the good work, be honest and don't give up on your big picture, think ahead 10 15 years, look at me giving advice! You don't even know me. Just wanted you to have a message without someone complaining or wanting something.

Ava vouched for you, that's good enough for me.

Best wishes for you and your family,

Carol Eads
