MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin and Family,

You are a bright light in the dark regions of the political landscape of our great country. I try to pray for you everytime I see your name. Primarily I pray for wisdom for you in your decision making. Beyond that I pray that God will give you strength to manage the extremely heavy load you are carrying; humility to continue to be "the people's governor"; grace to face those that oppose you; faithfulness in taking care of your primary responsibilities -- wife and mother; and over all -- God's Blessings.

I have wanted to write a quick note of encouragement for quite some time now and couldn't help but take the time after reading the notes to Trig. We had a "surprise baby" this year for our fortieth birthdays. What a scary (starting over), but joyful (many prayers answered) addition to our family of one teenage daughter.

GO AGIA!!!!
