Gave Annette a courtesy heads up and she said, "well if anybody asks me I'm going to say I advised you not to do it. This isn't a battle you need to take on." I told her she couldn't tell legislators that, and she said she could and would tell legislators that. I ended it by saying I'm submitting it on Saturday and I have approval from the 3rd floor. She said, "who's the 3rd floor?" I said the governor.

In the mean time, I think she and Mike are exchanging emails on the same topic...

You rock. That's why Blockbuster's offering you one month of Blockbuster Total Access, No Cost.
