Sarah,

Congrats on the great response for AGIA! Same to the Gas Line Team.

I had a chance to meet with Frank. We talked about many things. I always like how 'frank' Frank is :). I was still hoping to get with you sometime and see what great plans you were thinking of for the next year. I would like to do what I can to help the legislature align itself to your priorities.

Let me know if you think I can help,

God Bless,
Glen

PS. Thank you very much for your help on education. I know it is your diligent effort that is making some welcome changes. G

Governor,

Can you spare a few minutes for an old friend. I am hoping to get your thoughts on the future and any plans I can help you achieve.

Good afternoon! I am inviting all Alaskans to become involved in the state budget process by participating in a web survey.

Voices Across Alaska: State Budget Priorities is an opportunity for all Alaskans to provide your opinion on how the state's projected budget surplus should be saved and invested.

We all know oil prices will not remain at record levels forever, and planning ahead will help ensure that we really are kicking off a new era of tax stability. Under ACES, surplus revenue of approximately $1.6 billion could be realized this year.

I hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to become part of the process.

We will use your input to complete the FY2009 budget plan, which will be released to the public and the Legislature for consideration in mid-December.

Surveys will be accepted through 5 p.m. on December 3, 2007.

The survey can be accessed at www.alaska.gov or www.gov.state.ak.us.
