MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin, I recently made a list of people I admire. You were at the top of the list. Your never ending search for justice, what's right and new ways to enhance life in Alaska is awesome! I know I can't even imagine the stress, pressures and strain your hectic schedule puts on you and your family.

Since I am a wellness coach, I am obligated to share with you information about the most nutritious food on earth. It is a juice called Mona Vie, which is made from the Acai Berry (labeled the 21st century's superfood by the media), and 18 other fruits, all selected for their high antioxidant, anti-inflammatory agents. It is my hope that you and your family will enjoy this delicious juice. It does different good things for each person. For me, it has helped me think clearer, my sleep is sound and restful and my stamina is higher. Please visit; <http://mymonavie.com/awesomefood> when you get a chance. Click on the science tab.

Thanks you for being the model governor I knew you would be. We are so blessed! This state has been in need of your integrity for a long time.

Yours in Good Health,

Viki Turner

PS I would send you a bottle to try, but I am not sure what is proper with regard to that, please let me know if that would be ok.
